Welcome to the Ask Angus folder and thank you for taking part in the campaign. This has been produced by Visit Angus, in partnership with the Angus Tourism Cooperative.

To help visitors to Angus we are supporting businesses and organisations to share their knowledge of the local area with visitors. Ask Angus folders are being distributed to participating businesses and community groups across Angus as part of this project.

The packs contain tourist information specific to the immediate location plus more general Angus information which will enable you to provide tourist information to visitors.

We ask that you please share this information with all of your team, and in particular those who are likely to have direct contact with visitors.

To find out more about Ask Angus, see the Invest in Angus website.

Thank you
