

You said, we did

We take your feedback seriously. Here is just one example of the changes we introduced between January and March 2026 as a direct result of complaints received.

We identified a need to create clearer guidance for shared owners

We launched a new procedure and page on our website with advice and guidance for shared owners