ROUTE DESCRIPTION

This trail takes you along the bottom of the woods, through a field on a specially made path and down to the road just before Dunfallandy and Pitlochry.

Make an 8 mile circuit by cycling out on the trail and back along the road, or carry on in to Pitlochry, from where you can access the Faskally trail (see separate card).

DO THE RIDE THING

We love riding this route and to keep our good relationship with local landowners and other path users we ask you to follow the advice below:

- Let other path users know you are coming as early as possible.
- Please watch your speed especially on blind corners and dips.
- Please take extra care near wildlife and leave the environment as you find it.
- Help land managers and others to work safely and effectively. See 'Route Specifics'.

- The route description and quality of path may change over time so please remain flexible with your plans and be ready to use alternative routes.
- Check the weather forecast and ensure you have all the equipment you need for your route.
- If you are in any doubt please pop into one of our cycle centres for advice!

ROUTE SPECIFICS

- As this is a working estate and forest please observe all signage.
- Popular walking route please respect others.
- Let other users know you are coming and be ready to slow down or stop.
