Visitors to our website

Analytics

When someone visits our website we use a third-party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

'Contact Us' form

When someone completes our 'contact us' form we ask for a name and email address, this allows us to reply to enquiries in a helpful and timely manner. We will not share this information with any third party. These enquiries are stored in a database to ensure they are not lost in transit, they are deleted from the database once they have been dealt with. If any contact is converted to a client account, the client will be made aware of how your data is held within our terms of business. This information is securely transmitted and stored. We store this information in a data centre in The United Kingdom provided by iomart Group plc.

Sign up & Subscription Form

When a visitor completes our 'bulletin' subscription form we ask for a name, email address and postal address, this allows us to send bulletins in the manner requested by the visitor. This data is stored in a database on EQ Accountants premises. Visitors can withdraw consent for these bulletins by contacting us using the details above. We will not share this information with any third party.
