SORAYA'S STORY

I'm sorry, but it's so hard that I can't even talk about it because it makes me feel so bad, but none of us like to live where people don't like us, but we have to and there's no other way.

We are deeply saddened by the attacks we receive and we feel hopeless. I wish our country was peaceful and we could be there.