ABOUT

Sekers proudly presents ROWAN, a beautiful collection crafted from 100% recycled polyester. Drawing inspiration from timeless sophistication and classic style, Rowan presents a charming jacquard pattern featuring a traditional small herringbone design. Available in a palette of 17 exquisite colours.

Beyond its aesthetic appeal, Rowan stands as a testament to Sekers commitment to sustainability. Fully crafted from 100% recycled polyester, this collection embodies eco-conscious design principles, offering a stylish and environmentally friendly choice for designers. By choosing Rowan, designers enhance the beauty of their interiors while also contributing to a more sustainable future.

Not only does Rowan maintain its status as a timeless, on-trend fabric, it also has outstanding technical qualities. Featuring advanced stain-repellent technology, the fabric actively resists everyday hospitality stains, including food, beverage, and oil-based marks, allowing for simple sponge cleaning with water and mild soap. Rowan also has an impressive Martindale abrasion rating of 40,000 rubs. It is certified for IMO, US & UK contract use.

Cleaning & Maintenance Instructions

Stain Removal

Most everyday stains (wine, coffee, olive oil, jam, etc.) can be cleaned with water and mild soap.

1. Remove spills quickly with a damp cloth, then clean gently with a sponge.
2. Avoid scrubbing or pulling at dried stains.
3. For solvent-based stains (ink, lipstick, nail polish, etc.) seek professional cleaning

Regular Care

Vacuum regularly to keep fabrics fresh.

Durable Quality

Made with advanced yarns for excellent wear, abrasion, and pilling resistance, ensuring long-lasting softness and durability.

Eco-Friendly

No chemical treatments. Fabrics meet Ökotex-100 standards.
